Governor Scott Walker's office announced the 2014 holiday tour schedule for the Executive Residence. This year, Governor Scott Walker and First Lady Tonette Walker have partnered with Second Harvest Foodbank and the Wisconsin Department of Tourism's Big Bundle Up Campaign in order to promote selflessness and generosity this holiday season. Non-perishable food items and warm weather items, including new or gently used mittens, hats, scarves, coats, sweaters, jackets, and snow pants are happily accepted at the residence before and after the tours and will be donated to those in need.

Saturday, December 6	9a –12p

MPSD's Next Move.....

The Herald Times Reporter ran an article about the failed school referenda. It clearly shows the school board is out of touch with its constituents. Worse, two school board members inferred the failed referenda were solely due to partisan politics.

School board member Keith Shaw was quoted as saying: "I don't believe people, if they listened, would have said 'We don't need to fix up our buildings, we don't need to supply our students with the newest technology, we don't need safety, and we don't need programming. How could you say a public education system doesn't need those things?' Mr. Shaw apparently does not think it is important to tell constituents exactly what the requested funds would buy. The referenda failed because the school board asked for a blank check.

School board member Dave Nickels said "There clearly was a political group that fought against this referendum and they'll fight against it the next time. It might be recurring, it might be some other issue, but they will not support us. They were willing to spend a significant amount of money to defeat this referendum." The Manitowoc GOP purchased limited radio advertising and signs. The county party newsletter was published weekly, allowing additional opportunities to get out the referenda opposition vote. Mr. Nickels is mistaken, though. The Manitowoc GOP spent less in total than MPSD did on its first mailing. Don't forget the additional money MPSD spent on display advertising — or the consulting fees that orchestrated the "blank check" referenda. Mr. Nickels' attitude seems arrogant and condescending toward his constituents.

The Herald Times Reporter article said "Board members agreed that some may have voted no due to misinformation or confusion over the word 'recurring.'" Superintendent Marcia Flaherty said "the district could be more pro-active in educating subsets of the community." The school board's attitude toward its constituents is insulting. It expected voters would pass a "blank check" referenda and now whines about why the referenda did not pass.

Obviously, MPSD will be back with another referendum. Voters need to continue to demand accountability from the school board and district. Your help will be needed to defeat the next referendum to hit the ballot. Please stay informed and let us know how you will be able to help.

Manitowoc City Council Vacancy 5th District

City Council member Keith Shaw recently announced his resignation, citing his leading the search for a new school superintendent as the reason. Shaw won over incumbent and Manitowoc GOP member Tyler Martell this past April. The city is seeking qualified applicants to fill the vacancy for a period from January 2015 through April 18, 2016.

Those interested must be qualified electors of the 5th Aldermanic District, which is generally described as an area bounded by the Manitowoc River on the north, South 21st/Wollmer/South 26th Streets on the east, Hamilton/Calumet/Marshall and Custer on the south and the city limits on the west. District boundary maps are available at the City Clerk's office.

Those interested should submit a letter of interest, accompanied by a resume, no later than noon Dec. 26 to City Clerk Jennifer Hudon, 900 Quay St., Manitowoc, WI 54220. Parties may be asked to give a brief presentation to the Common Council at a future meeting. Contact the City Clerk at (920) 686-6950 for more information.

Thank you, Jon Goswitz and Eric Volcheff, for your letters to the editor. This is an easy way to help keep GOP momentum going for the spring elections and, of course, 2016. We need you to stay involved!

Towsley's employees will be collecting blankets and stuffed animals that will be distributed through the Salvation Army. If you would like to donate new or "lightly used" blankets or stuffed animals, please bring these to Towsley's, 1424 Dewey Street in Manitowoc no later than December 3.
